Walter

Brueggemann sets forth a new vision of the Christian church

in today's world. Based on speaking

engagements

surrounding his critical passion

and conviction

that the church in this moment must set itself in tension with the rest of the world, these essays call the church to courageously defy political polarization, consumerism, and militarism.

Walter Brueggemann writes on Isaiah 1-39, which many scholars believe had a single author, Isaiah, of the eighth century BCE, who wrote in the context of the Assyrian empire between 742 and 701. Books in

Brueggemann

In these reflections, the authors write that the Bible, as the live word of the living God, will not submit to the accounts we prefer to give of it. They note that taking the Bible most seriously means struggling to understand its meaning as well as affirming its truth.

A number of moving prayers can be found in the Old Testament and throughout

Scripture. In this accessible volume, world-renowned scholar

Walter

Brueggemann

offers his insight and

wisdom on twelve prayers in the Old Testament,

listening to the
biblical text

and explaining how these

examples of

come alive for us today. Among the prayers explored are those by Abraham, Moses, Hannah, David, Solomon, Jonah, Jeremiah, Hezekiah, Ezra, Nehemiah, Daniel, and Job. The prayers in this volume the depths of human experience

and the majestic
grace of a loving God who hears everything and takes every prayer to heart.
